Fall Banking Forum to Begin Wednesday

The Fall forum in banking education sponsored by the Women's Committee, American Institute of Banking, Harbor District Chapter, will be held at the Ebell Club with classes slated to begin Wednesday.

First of the four lectures, "How do you cross your T's" will be given by Bernardine Rifkin, certified grapho analyst and lecturer. For the past three years she has been a member of the Board of Directors for the International Grapho Analysis Society, and specialized in the scientific identification of questioned and forged documents.

Mrs. Georgette McGregor, journalist and lecturer will speak on the topic "Oh! Oh! Your speech is showing," Oct. 14. Mrs. McGregor has served on the speech department staff at Tulane University, New Orleans and University of California, and as an administrator at Stanford University.

"Is it Legal" the subject for the third class Oct. 21, will be given by Frederick A. Kepka, Superior Court Commissioner for the County of Los Angeles. He received his L.L.B. degree at the University of Michigan. In 1948 he opened his own law office in Long Beach and practiced there until his appointment to the Superior Court in 1953.

Last class of the forum, Oct. 28, Elwood N. Chapman, well known lecturer and professor of salesmanship and an outstanding authority in the field of human relations will lecture on "Be yourself—but change."

Mrs. Ruby McDonel, chairman of the women's committee is in charge. Further information for those interested will be provided by the AIB women representatives at each bank.

Second Book and Arts Fair Announced

The 2nd Annual South Bay Book and Arts Fair will be held this year Nov. 21, and 22 at the Eagles Hall, 128 Catalina St., Redondo Beach.

The Fair will be sponsored by the Pacific Unitarian Church, it was announced by Pat Hennigan, Torrance, General Chairman.

Theme of the show, repeating that held in the Torrance Auditorium last year, will be the cultural enrichment of the community through the arts.

A display of books and records will be furnished by the Children's Music Center. "We will also feature children's musical instruments for Christmas buying," advised Mrs. David Mannick, Manhattan Beach, book chairman. Baby sitting service will be provided by the youth group of the church, in order for parents to enjoy the varied programs of folk dancing, folk singing, and the arts and crafts displays.

Further information, contact the general chairman, Pat Hennigan at FR 4-5123. Admission to the Book and Arts Fair will be free, tickets for the special programs will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

SHAKING ON THE GLITTER members of the Temple Menorah Sisterhood, left, Mmes. Joseph Cohen, Charles Bortek and Herbert Rosen, put some of the final touches on decorations for the Oct. 17 Sukkos Swing Ball. The dance will be held at the Neptunian Club, 920 Highland Ave., Manhattan Beach.

Gourmet Supper Slated for Sukkos Swing

A gourmet midnight supper will highlight Temple Menorah Sisterhood's "Sukkos Swing" dance, Oct. 17, at the Neptunian Club, 920 Highland Ave., Manhattan Beach.

The affair, which follows the end of the Jewish High Holy Days will benefit the Temple's religious school, according to Mrs. Herbert Rosen, chairman. For the occasion the ballroom will be decorated in honor of the Sukkos holiday, which celebrates the harvest festival.

Bernie Perry and his group will provide music for dancing and Chicago nightclub singer, Tomar Fishman, will entertain. Donation tickets for the affair will be $6.50 per couple. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Rosen at FR 8-4624. Active in arranging plans for the Sukkos Swing are: Mmes. Kirk Bockenheimer, Paul Chaiken, Joseph Cohen, Robert Eckhouse, Malcolm Field, Donald Winklestein, Paul Glassman, Sidney Greene, William Klemtner, David Levine, Stanley Lieber,

Edward London, George Neldeman, Herbert Phillips, Henry Rappaport, Bernard Rivo, Melvin Schumacher, Edward Sokolski and Milford Susman.

Winter Fun Set for Sports Minded Gals

The end of summer doesn't spell the end of woman's sports in Torrance.

Sessions of bowling, golfing and co-ed volleyball each guaranteed to combine social activity with figure-preserving exercise, are announced by the Torrance Recreation Department.

The bowling league meets at 9:20 a.m. each Tuesday at the Bowl-O-Drome. It's strictly for fun and most of the participants are novice beginners. Beginners receive instruction and advice. Child care is available.

Golfing at Sea-Alre Golf Course is open daily except Monday and is extremely popular with housewives. A Woman's Golf Club meets each Thursday at the nine-hole short course. They are planning a tournament late this month. There is an adjacent play area for youngsters.

Coed volleyball starts Thursday at Torrance High School gymnasium and is planned for 7:30 each Thursday thereafter. This activity has proved popular with young married couples.

All provide means by which housewives may combine enjoyable social activity with figure-preserving exercise.
